

Leviticus 3

If the offering is a sacrifice of well-being, if you offer an animal of the herd, whether male or female, you shall offer one without blemish before the Lord. 2 You shall lay your hand on the head of the offering and slaughter it at the entrance of the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons the priests shall dash the blood against all sides of the altar.

You shall offer from the sacrifice of well-being, as an offering by fire to the Lord, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is around the entrails; 4 the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

Then Aaron's sons shall turn these into smoke on the altar, with the burnt offering that is on the wood on the fire, as an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the Lord.

The common denominator of the zevah shelamim is Joy.

“You shall sacrifice the well-being offering and eat them, rejoicing before the Lord your God.”

Deuteronomy 27:7

“The distinctive feature of shelamim is that only blood and token fatty portions of the animal are placed on the altar & only certain prescribed portions of the meat are eaten by the priests; most of the animal is eaten by the offerer and invited guests as a festive meal “in the LORD’s presence.””

The blessing and thanksgiving of one is the blessing and celebration of all.
